MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, April 16, 1761.

PARIS, December 31.

THE Propoſals of Peace that came from the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, by the Inſtruction of the King of Pruſſia, might have been accepted, had there been no Mention of guarantying Part of Sileſia to that Prince. His Pruſſian Majeſty, in getting the King of Poland to uſe his Intereſt at our Court, and at Vienna, acted, no Doubt, in Concert with the Britiſh Court, who, we are told, has juſt made the following Propoſals, by the Channel of the Spaniſh Miniſter.

1. That we ſhall relinquiſh Guadaloupe.
2. Give up Port Mahon.
3. Demoliſh the Fortifications at Dunkirk.
4. Aſſiſt the Queen of Hungary with no more than 25,000 Men.

Upon theſe Conditions, England will reſtore to us all Canada, Goree and Senegal; reſerving to herſelf the Liberty of ſupplying the King of Pruſſia with as many Troops as ſhe pleaſes; but at the ſame Time engaging to ſend him no more than he ſhall think fit to take into his Pay.

Two Things immediately determined his Majeſty to reject theſe Propoſitions; the firſt, is the Demolition of Dunkirk's Fortifications; and the other is, that he will come to no Accommodation but for a general Peace: Such, at leaſt, are the Aſſurances the King has given the Empreſs Queen.

Dublin, Jan. 13. We hear his Majeſty's Letter is come over, ordering Payment of upwards of 3000l. being the Amount of Expences incurred by the Inhabitants of Belfaſt, on the Occaſion of M. Thurot's late Invaſion.

LONDON.

Jan. 13. The Charming Polly, Barber, from Virginia to London, is taken, and carried into St. Maloes.

The Polly, alias Bartholomew, Leſlie, from Maryland to London, is taken by a French Privateer, and carried into St. Maloes.

Jan. 15. It is ſaid Lord Villiers, Member of Parliament for Weobly, in Herefordſhire, and eldeſt Son to Lord Jerſey, will ſucceed the late Admiral Boſcawen, as one of the Lords of the Admiralty; and that Admiral Pocock will ſpeedily take upon him the Command of a Squadron at Sea.

Part of a Letter from the Hague, Dec. 30.

"The greateſt Part of the Engliſh Officers who have arrived within theſe few Days from the Army, in their Way to England, complain openly of Prince F——, that he aims at nothing but getting Honour to himſelf, and filling his Pockets."

The Newcaſtle, Spencer, and the Volunteer, Potts, both from Maryland to London, are taken and carried into Bayonne.

Jan. 17. Yeſterday Major General Studholm Hodgſon kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand on being appointed Commander in Chief of the Forces going on a ſecret Expedition. As did alſo Col. Crawford, on his being appointed Second in Command thereof.

The Peggy, Pinkhorn, of and for London from Quebec and Breſt, is arrived at Plymouth. She ſays, that on the 3d Inſtant the Couragieux, of 74 Guns, the Malicieuſe, of 36, and the Amere of 32, ſailed from Breſt with Troops, ſuppoſed for the Weſt-Indies.

The African Packet, Mawſon, from Senegal, laſt from Virginia, is taken and carried into St. Maloes.

The Admiral Hawke, Gregg, from Virginia to London, is taken, and carried into Bayonne.

The St. Cecilia, Maxted, from Virginia to London, is taken and carried into Havre de Grace.

They write from Toulon, of the 21ſt of December, that the Cargo of the Engliſh Ship Prince Edward, taken by M. de Mories, was ſold there, by Auction, for 13 Million of Livres, or 568,750 l. Sterling.

ST. JAGO DE LA VEGA (Jamaica) Jan. 24.

On Saturday laſt arrived at Port-Royal his Majeſty's Ship Glaſgow, from a Cruize, and brought in a large French Snow, bound from Marſeilles to Port-au-Prince.

Feb. 7. On Saturday laſt arrived from a Cruize his Majeſty's Ship the Renown, and brought in a large Ship, laden with Beef, Butter, &c. from Cork, taken going into the Cape.

On Tueſday arrived from Weſtmoreland Capt. Hyndes, with a Party of free Negroes and Mulattoes under his Command. Every Thing remains quiet at preſent in that, as alſo in every other Pariſh of this Iſland.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) March 21.

Laſt Sunday Afternoon arrived in Town from Auguſta, Capt. James Colbert, of the Upper Chicaſahs, with a Cherokee Scalp and a Priſoner, which he, with a Party of Chicaſahs, took near Fort Prince George, about the 27th ult. The Party he fell in with conſiſted of five, three of whom, being on Horſeback, got off; but one of them, having a Fall, loſt his Gun, Ammunition and Blanket. The Priſoner told Colbert, that he belonged to a Gang of 30, with a white Man, who had been down to Long-Canes, and burnt all the Houſes and Proviſions they found there, but were otherwiſe unſucceſsful: That upon their Return they divided into ſmall Parties: That the Little Carpenter (Attakullakulla, with whom Governor Lyttleton concluded the Treaty in 1759, at Keohwee) ſtill preſſed the Nation to accept or ſue for Peace, by which it is plain that he continues firm in his Attachment to the Engliſh: And that the Cherokees were rather inclined for Peace, than to continue the War; but were kept in Action by repeated Aſſurances from ſome Creeks, that their Nation would at laſt join them. While Colbert had his Priſoner at Mr. Trewin's Store at Auguſta, Fool-Harry's Son and ſome other Creeks came there to ſee him, appeared much diſſatisfied, and behaved in ſuch a Manner as to create a Suſpicion that they intended to reſcue him, upon which he was removed and concealed till brought away.——Colbert was the firſt who brought an Account of his Succeſs to Town. On Thurſday he ſet out on his Return to Auguſta, and carried conſiderable Rewards for thoſe Chicaſahs who had been out with him. Some Time next Month he will go again, with a large Party of Upper and Lower Chicaſahs, to war againſt the Cherokees, and join the Troops commanded by Col. Grant.

On Wedneſday laſt four large Tranſport Ships, having on board the heavy Baggage of his Majeſty's Troops to be employed in the approaching Campaign againſt the Cherokees (in Conjunction with the Forces of this Province) under the Command of Col. James Grant, ſailed up Cooper-River, for Strawberry, where they are to land the ſame, in order to be immediately tranſported in Waggons to Monck's Corner. And,

Yeſterday Morning early, the ſaid Troops ſet out on their March from hence, to begin the Campaign: They conſiſt of four Companies of his Majeſty's Royal or 1ſt Regiment, two Companies of the 17th, two of the 22d, and eight of the new raiſed Independents: To-morrow Evening they may reach Monck's Corner, where they will halt no longer than is abſolutely neceſſary.

The Highlanders belonging to Col. Montgomery's Regiment, who arrived laſt Week from Providence, remain in Town, under the Command of Capt. Alexander Mackenzie.

NEW-YORK, April 6.

On Saturday laſt his Honour the Preſident was pleaſed to give his Aſſent to the following Act, paſſed this Seſſion, viz. An Act for raiſing, paying, and cloathing, Seventeen Hundred and Eighty-ſeven effective Men, Officers included, to be employed in ſecuring His Majeſty's Conqueſts in North-America, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

We hear the General Aſſembly of the Colony of Connecticut, laſt Week voted the Number of 2325 Men, for the Service of the preſent Year.

Saturday Night laſt Captain Richardſon arrived here from Antigua in 18 Days: He ſailed from thence in Company with the Ship York, for this Port, but parted from her about 12 Days ſince. Capt. Richardſon informs us, That ſeveral French Privateers have lately been carried into that Iſland, by the Frigates under the Command of Commodore Douglaſs.

Upwards of Forty Maſters, Mates, and Paſſengers, belonging to the ſeveral Veſſels taken and carried into Martinico, were embarked on board of a Flag of Truce the 15th of February; all the Foremaſt Men being confined in cloſe Goals, having only a ſmall Allowance of Salt Beef, and Bread, for 24 Hours, and bad Water to drink;—Stones and Boards to repoſe on; and many Lice.

On Monday laſt arrived here, the Brig Polly, Captain Lion, in twenty Days from Jamaica; the Advices by this Veſſel are, that Admiral Holmes, with the Squadron under his Command, are very active in cruiſing on that Station; that they have taken ſeveral French Privateers and other Veſſels; particularly, that one of our Men of War lately took and brought in there a French Frigate, and that they have likewiſe taken ſeveral Engliſh Flags of Truce, and Mount Traders, which are all condemned; and that the Negro Rebellion being entirely ſubdued, the People of that Iſland were no longer ſubjected to Martial-Law.

PHILADELPHIA, April 9.

Captain Forbes, in the Atalanta, from New-York for Barbados, was taken by a French Privateer, and afterwards retaken by a Man of War.

ANNAPOLIS, April 16.

By Means of the Badneſs of the Weather laſt Week, and the Shortneſs of the Notice in his Excellency's Proclamation for Calling the Aſſembly, there did not come to Town a ſufficient Number of the Gentlemen to make a Houſe until Monday laſt: When the Aſſembly met; and after their taking the Oaths to his preſent Majeſty King GEORGE the Third, his Excellency made the following Speech:

GENTLEMEN of the Upper and Lower Houſes of ASSEMBLY,

NOT doubting but you are affected with extreme Sorrow and Concern for the Death of our late moſt Gracious Sovereign, of happy Memory, whoſe paternal Care We and all our Fellow-Subjects in theſe Colonies have moſt ſenſibly experienced, I ſincerely condole with you on that melancholy Event; the fatal Conſequences of which would be moſt ſeverely felt throughout the extenſive Dominions of Great-Britain, was not his Majeſty happily ſucceeded by one of his illuſtrious Deſcendants, whoſe many eminent and princely Virtues render Him dear to all His Subjects, and give them full Aſſurance of the Continuance of the innumerable Bleſſings which they have enjoyed during the long, mild, juſt, and glorious Reign of his Royal Grandfather. That His People may enjoy theſe Bleſſings in the fulleſt Extent, His Majeſty wiſhes to ſee His Kingdoms in a State of Tranquility; but being thoroughly perſuaded that a vigorous Proſecution of the juſt War in which the Nation is engaged, is the only effectual Meaſure to reduce the Enemy to the Neceſſity of accepting Peace on Terms of Glory and Advantage to His Crown, and particularly beneficial to His Subjects in America, whoſe Intereſt He hath much at Heart; His Majeſty hath been pleaſed to give Orders, that ſuch Part of His Regular Forces in North-America as may be adequate to ſome great and important Enterprize, be employed in ſome other Quarter againſt the Enemy during the enſuing Campaign; and that the Security curity of His Dominions on this Continent, particularly of the Countries, which, in the Courſe of this War, have, by the Bleſſing of the Almighty on the Britiſh Arms, been reduced to the Obedience of our Sovereign, may be the better provided for, His Majeſty hath been pleaſed to ſignify His Expectations, that His dutiful and loyal Subjects in theſe Colonies will, without Delay, raiſe and ſupport a ſufficient Number of Troops for that Service, to be employed on this Continent during the Abſence of ſuch Regulars, in the Manner that the Commander in Chief of all his Forces in North-America ſhall direct.

That you may be more fully apprized what Aſſiſtance His Majeſty requires of you in particular, and how he vouchſafes to invite you by Promiſes and Encouragements to do what your Duty to Him, and a Regard for your own Happineſs and that of your Poſterity, muſt ſtrongly prompt you to perform, I ſhall lay before you a Letter from the Right Honourable WILLIAM PITT, Eſq; and another from his Excellency General AMHERST, hoping you will be thereby induced to purſue, at this Time, ſuch Meaſures, as that they may both have the Satisfaction to Report to Our moſt Gracious Sovereign, how chearfully you ſhall have complied with His Majeſty's Requiſition. As I did not, by Reaſon of the Leiceſter Packet's being loſt, receive the Secretary of State's Letter ſo early as he expected I ſhould receive it, and the Seaſon is already come when the Troops, for which I am ordered to ſollicit you, ought to have been ready to march, I muſt intreat you to loſe no Time, but with the utmoſt Expedition to prepare a Bill that will effectually anſwer the Purpoſes recommended to you: By ſuch a Proceeding you will, I flatter myſelf, incline His Majeſty to entertain a favourable Opinion of the Inhabitants of this Province, you will give the beſt Proof of your Attachment to His Sacred Perſon and Government, and of your earneſt Deſire to be thought worthy of the Bleſſings, which all his good and loyal Subjects have abundant Reaſon to promiſe themſelves under His auſpicious Reign.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Eſq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

The humble ADDRESS of the UPPER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

SENSIBLE of the great Loſs that we and all our Fellow-Subjects have ſuffered by the Death of our late moſt Gracious and Excellent Sovereign, whoſe paternal Care and Protection the Inhabitants of theſe Colonies have in a peculiar Manner experienced, we moſt ſincerely lament with your Excellency that melancholy Event.

Our Grief on this Occaſion could only be alleviated by the Conſideration of the eminent Virtues inherited from Him with the Crown by his illuſtrious Succeſſor, which encourage His Subjects on the beſt Grounds to entertain the utmoſt Confidence, that, under his Auſpices, they will, in the fulleſt Extent, enjoy the innumerable and invaluable Bleſſings which they have experienced during the long, mild, juſt, and glorious Reign of His Royal Grandfather: Happy in this Proſpect, we join in the general Joy, which hath been diffuſed throughout the extenſive Dominions of Great-Britain: And as we earneſtly deſire to teſtify our Duty and Attachment to His Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, both by our Words and Actions, we return your Excellency our Thanks for giving us this Opportunity of doing both, and for the Speech which you were pleaſed to make at the Opening of this Seſſion.

We alſo beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that, having in Remembrance what great Efforts have been made by the Mother-Country to reſcue theſe Colonies from the Dangers to which they were not long ſince expoſed, we ſhall, for our Part, embrace every Opportunity of making the beſt Return in our Power: Convinced that a vigorous Proſecution of the War, is the only effectual Meaſure to reduce the Enemy to the Neceſſity of accepting Peace on Terms of Glory to His Majeſty's Crown, advantageous to Great-Britain, and particularly beneficial to His Majeſty's Subjects in America, we ſhould be extremely wanting to ourſelves and our Poſterity, as well as in Duty and Gratitude to our moſt Gracious Sovereign, were we not moſt readily to comply with His Requiſition, ſignified by the Letters which your Excellency hath been pleaſed to lay before us.

We beg Leave therefore to aſſure you, that, zealous as we have been on every Occaſion to promote the Service of Our Sovereign, we ſhall moſt chearfully give our Concurrence to any equitable Bill for the Purpoſes recommended by your Excellency, which may be at this Time offered us, and ſhall rejoice if the Iſſue of this Seſſion be ſuch, as to induce His Majeſty to entertain a favourable Opinion of this Province, and to believe that the Inhabitants of Maryland are not unworthy of the Happineſs, which all His good and loyal Subjects have the greateſt Reaſon to promiſe themſelves under his auſpicious Reign.

B. TASKER, Preſident.

April 15, 1761.

The Governor's ANSWER:

Gentlemen of the Upper Houſe of Aſſembly,

YOUR kind Addreſs having given me much Satisfaction, I return you my ſincere Thanks for it, and beg you will believe that I have not the leaſt Doubt but you will chearfully embrace this and every Opportunity that may be afforded you of manifeſting your Zeal and Duty to our moſt Gracious Sovereign, and of recommending this Province to His Majeſty's Favour.

HOR°. SHARPE.

16th of April, 1761.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Eſq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of DELEGATES.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Delegates of the Freemen of the Province of Maryland, in Aſſembly convened, return your Excellency our Thanks for your kind Speech at the Opening of this Seſſion.

The ſevere Loſs which we have ſuſtained by the Death of our late moſt Gracious Sovereign, whoſe paternal Care We and all our Fellow-Subjects have ſo ſenſibly experienced, fills our Hearts with the deepeſt Concern, and we moſt ſincerely condole with your Excellency on that melancholy Event.

But while we deplore the Loſs of ſo great and good a King, it affords us the higheſt Conſolation to ſee the Throne immediately filled by one of His illuſtrious Deſcendants, whoſe eminent and princely Virtues are happy Preſages of a Continuance of all thoſe Bleſſings we have ſo long enjoyed under the mild and glorious Reign of His Royal Grandfather; upon which important Occaſion, permit us to offer your Excellency our moſt hearty Congratulations.

We are fully ſenſible of the Wiſdom of His Majeſty's Reſolution, to puſh the War with Vigour, and ſhall immediately take under our Conſideration, the Letters you have been pleaſed to lay before us from the Right Honourable WILLIAM PITT, Eſq; and his Excellency General AMHERST: And as we cannot doubt but we ſhall equally ſhare the Bleſſings, which all the good and loyal Subjects of our moſt Gracious Sovereign have the greateſt Reaſon to expect under His auſpicious Reign, ſo we flatter ourſelves that our Proceedings on this Occaſion will preſerve the favourable Opinion, which we hope His Majeſty entertains of the People of this Province, and give a ſufficient Proof of our own Attachment to His Sacred Perſon and Government.

H. HOOPER, Speaker.

April 14, 1761.

The Governor's ANSWER:

Gentlemen of the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly,

BE pleaſed to accept my Acknowledgments for your obliging Addreſs, for your Promiſe to take immediately into Conſideration the Letters which I have laid before you, and for the Hopes you have given me, that your Proceedings on this Occaſion will be a convincing Proof of your Attachment to His Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and of your earneſt Deſire to preſerve the favourable Opinion which I hope He hath been graciouſly pleaſed to entertain of the Inhabitants of this Province.

HOR°. SHARPE.

April 15, 1761.

Monday laſt the Honourable the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly, unanimouſly made Choice of Mr. JOHN ALLEN THOMAS, of Talbot County, to be their Clerk, in the room of MICHAEL MACNEMARA, Eſq; gone to England.

We hear that a Brigantine outward bound, belonging to Meſſieurs Ridgely and Lux of Baltimore-Town, is aſhore on Smith's Point down the Bay.

On Tueſday the 7th of this Inſtant, a very unhappy and tragical Scene was acted at the Plantation of Mr. John Booth in St. Mary's County. Mr. Booth had but juſt left Home, in order to ſettle Accounts with the Sheriff, when a Negro Man, which he had bought laſt Summer, attacked a Negro Wench, and beat her Head to Pieces with a Maul, and would have kill'd a Negro Boy, but he ſaved himſelf by running; when he had kill'd the Negro Woman, he went into the Houſe, and murder'd his Miſtreſs, beating her Head to Pieces, and with an Axe ſplit the Head of a little Boy, about 3 Years old, his Maſter's Son, as he lay ſleeping in Bed. He immediately went away, and is ſuppoſed to have put an End to his own wretched Life. Mrs. Booth, and the Negro Wench, were both advanced in their Pregnancy.

The Brig Barry, from Maryland to London, was taken by a French Privateer, and afterwards retaken by the Loo Man of War, and ſent into Briſtol.

CHARLES WALLACE,

STAYMAKER, in ANNAPOLIS,

Having juſt Imported in the WILSON, Capt. JUDSON COOLIDGE, from LONDON,

A LARGE Quantity of the very beſt Materials for carrying on his Buſineſs, and having a ſufficient number of Hands for that Purpoſe, hereby gives Notice, That he will furniſh STAYS, at the old and uſual Prices, to ſuch of his Cuſtomers ONLY as Pay the Ready Money.

The Price of Stay-Goods in general being greatly Advanced, and Workmen very difficult to be met with even at the moſt extravagant Wages, renders Credits very hurtful, therefore thoſe who do not make prompt Payment muſt expect the Price to be eqvivalent.

All Perſons indebted to the Subſcriber, are requeſted to make ſpeedy Payment; and ſuch of them as have Accounts of above one Years ſtanding, and who do not Settle the ſame, either by Caſh or Bond, may depend on being ſued without further Notice.

N. B. STAY-GOODS of all Sorts, to be Sold, for Ready Money, at the moſt reaſonable Rates, by CHARLES WALLACE.
